

Autumn on the Yorkshire Coast

Your guide to enjoying East Yorkshire's wildlife and wild places this season

Wings, waves and walks!

Only a day to spend on the coast? Make the most of it with these 'must-see' places and activities around Flamborough.

Where to go...

Yorkshire Wildlife Trust Flamborough Cliffs

A hotspot for birds on their amazing autumn migrations. Also look for seals and dolphins! YO15 1BJ

Yorkshire Wildlife Trust Living Seas Centre

Discover about life under the waves, get top tips for seasonal sightings and enjoy a cuppa! YO15 1AE

RSPB Bempton Cliffs

Short-eared owls turn heads on this reserve as they arrive for the winter months. Café treats and retail therapy too! YO15 1JF

What to do...

Headland hike

Enjoy the colours of autumn as the woodland meets the sea in a Danes Dyke to South Landing loop (3 miles). YO15 1AA

Lighthouse lookout

Walk the two miles from North Landing to the Lighthouse. (Open Friday, Saturday and Sunday from end of September). **£

A fish supper

Enjoy fish and chips straight out of the paper with a side order of fresh sea air!

Sea air adventure!

Extend your trip, make a weekend of it and include the following over the course of two days:

What to do...

Go on a guided adventure!

Join a specialist wildlife tour with Yorkshire Coast Nature for a day to remember! Enjoy whale or bird watching with expert guides. Visit yorkshirecoastnature.co.uk **£

Go on a seashore safari

Check out and join in with the Living Seas Centre's hands-on activity programme. Rock pooling is fun whatever the weather! ywt.org.uk

Go fossil hunting

Hat, scarves and gloves ready... Get ready to comb the beach at Bridlington. Spot fossils of ancient, long extinct marine life.

Enjoy rooms with sea views, cosy cafés and tasty local produce too!

Migration Marathon!

Autumn is an amazing time to see flocks of migratory birds all along the Yorkshire Coast. More seasonal spectacles await...

A short drive away...

Picturesque peninsula

Enjoy stunning cliff top and coastline views from Filey Brigg. Also keep an eye out for harbour porpoise, whales and seals on a calm day. YO14 9ET

Seashore stroll

Don't miss the five miles of golden sands in Filey Bay itself – or relax and recharge with long shoreline walks at nearby Hunmanby Gap.

Walk this way!

From Filey, step on to the England Coast Path National Trail. It connects with the Cleveland Way and Wolds Way for postcard picture views.

Day trip adventures...

East Yorkshire Coast to Coast

Journey at peak migration time (September & October) to Yorkshire's very own Land's End, Spurn Point – 1 hr 40 mins drive from Bridlington, HU12 0UH

Using the Discovery Centre as your base at this Yorkshire Wildlife Trust Reserve, you can pack so much wild adventure into one day! Wrap up warm and don't forget your binoculars and camera...

Treat yourself at the Discovery Centre café too!

Walk the wildlife trails and settle into a hide. Look out for deer and seals too.

Tour the reserve aboard the Spurn Safari and climb the tallest lighthouse in northern England. **£

Return north on the coastal road to enjoy huge skies and hopefully a colourful sunset.

Head to Hornsea Mere

Head south to Yorkshire's largest freshwater lake – a crucial stop off for migrating birds too! (30 mins drive from Bridlington, HU11 5RJ).

Hornsea has a long golden beach, a pretty town centre and marks the eastern end of the Trans Pennine Trail long distance walking route.

Pack a flask and binoculars, settle into a hide and be amazed by vast gatherings of wildfowl.

Fill your lungs with fresh air – a stroll around the lake is a delight whatever the season.

Be charmed by Hornsea town with its Elizabethan mansion, museum and 19th century folly.
